

Richard Clark

I have reviewed the draft permit and supporting modeling. I am very concerned about the discharge of waste water into Boysen Reservoir, the waters of which are important to recreation and agriculture. The discharge of any effluents into this body of water is troubling, especially heavy metals which persist in the environment and pose significant risks to wildlife and humans. I am very much opposed to granting this permit, which would create immediate environmental harm and set a terrible precedent for future applications.