

Seth Beddes

I am against untreated water entering the environment. The water should meet a safety standard as to not endanger the life of any plants, animals, fish or any other living organisms that it would or could come into contact with.