

Joseph Tilghman

I am in support of this proposed project with the caveat that the wastewater from this field is very tightly controlled and regulated so not to pollute the Wing River or Boysen. I want regulation with teeth, not just smoke blown up the public ass while the politicians and regulators perform fellatio on the industry executives that is the norm in this state.