

Kristy Palmer

Please show that you value the people of Wyoming more than industry by not allowing fracking waste product in the Boysen Reservoir. If you do it, I would like to see warning signs to all visitors of the Reservoir and I would like to see everyone who approved decision swim in it with their families to show that you really do think it is okay. You are intentionally destroying Wyoming's waterways. The thought of it makes me ashamed to live in Wyoming.