

Joseph Dougherty

I am a Wyoming resident who has utilized the Boysen reservoir and its tributaries and the many resources since the 1970's. I can't think of a more abhorrent concept of disposing of said effluent, unless it would be placing it directly as bottled drinking water. We don't want industrial waste in our environment!