

Emily Petty

I am not supporting this discharge permit. One thing I love about Wyoming is its natural beauty and the outdoor recreation activities it has to offer. This permit is a threat to both. You need to find another option for this discharge that will not endanger the most important things the state has to offer.