

Amy Kenworthy

Polluted watersheds have happened all over this country due to the lack of foresight. Surely, we now have plenty of knowledge about the effects of pollutants both on human beings and on the plants and animals that share our watersheds with us to know that it is not acceptable to dump untreated water into our lakes and streams. These practices must cease. Don't dump untreated waste water into Boysen Reservoir.