

Nancy Beck

There is an energy company wanting to do business in our State and their challenge is managing water. This state holds primacy for permitting both Clean Water Act and disposal wells.

Why on earth isn't Wyoming doing everything within its authority to provide clear and absolute regulatory certainty on solutions to move this forward?

Please reconsider your position on this permit by not walking backwards.