

Bev Dalley

I'm retired and have lived in Wyoming all my life. The oil field has contributed to the community and the economy of the entire state for as long as I can remember. It's too bad that the government bureaucrats are once again making arbitrary and capricious decisions without taking into consideration how it can affect so many!