

Ross Thornock

As an avid fisherman, and a father with children who enjoy swimming in the lake, I am concerned. The fact that Aethon has no plans of repairing the water treatment facilities scares me. There should be no deviation from the existing draft permit, and I think other means of disposing the water need to be looked into.