

Duane Schweigert

I am opposed to any effluent discharge into the waters of the state of Wyoming. This project further degrades the environment and allows an outmoded and heavily polluting energy source to continue its destructive practices. The worlds energy sources are changing and we need to get on board.