

Brian Ballard

I support the approval on the Moneta Divide Water permit. This latest diversion has been discussed previously and analyzed enough. The operators will be watched at all stages of development and with today's technology this can be a successful project for all. Fossil fuels are not yet extinct and will be needed for the life of this project. Thank you. Brian BallardY