

Katrina Jolly

So much of our community depends on the money the oil field brings in. I can tell you from being an oil field wife that I am able to be a stay at home mom and look after my 5 small children . It's a true blessing that my husband can work so close to home and provide us with a great life . And it's all thanks to the oil field and the opportunities it provides families !!