

Blake Liedy

Anyone with half a brain knows that the test required to have a natural discharge permit are strictly monitored. I dont see the problem. More water to enjoy in the lake. More water for farms and ranchers. And the hundreds if not thousands of jobs it would bring to our community. And I won't even get into the tax revenue