

Elly Talbott

I strongly believe that you should grant Aethon their water permit without increasing the stipulations for discharge water. The impact of your irresponsible and unfounded increased stipulations will have a devastating effect on the local economy due to unnecessary and overreaching regulation. I believe your increased regulation to be politically driven rather than scientifically based.