

Kristopher Williams

The Aethon Energy expansion project would bring a much needed boost to the local economy. The jobs created through the project would have a very positive impact because lets face it the energy market is on tough times. The people of Wyoming must come together and work on a solution to further our future in the field of energy. The revenue alone from state and local taxes would help better a countless number of organizations and help pave a solid future for the state of Wyoming.