

Jo Fields

AS a former resident of Green River and frequent visitor to the Wind River Range I protest these terrible drainage issues to these water supplies. I feel, with technology as it is, there should be some other way to take care of this problem. Get after it!!!! Use your smarts and solve this matter before it's too late!