

Kathy Schilling

Please do not revise the existing draft permit in the Moneta Divide gas field. The current permit has been acceptable for many years and should be allowed to continue. This change in regulation would set a terrible precedence for Wyoming's oil and gas industry and would hurt our state and especially Fremont county's economy more than it can withstand.