

Kathy Curtis

The waste and pollution of gas emissions is unacceptable. The polluters need to be held accountable; they are sloppy and irresponsible. This is unfair to the Wyoming public; clean air is one of our treasures and in fact it draws people to Wyoming through tourism, hunting, and as a place to raise families or retire.