

Kenneth Schuster

I back RAMACO's permit application and their commitment to researching alternative uses for coal in the new economy. Sheridan County needs viable development of our coal resources that are inline with lessening global climate change and strengthening the local economy with well paying jobs.