

Sheridan County Chamber of Commerce

Ramaco has taken the utmost care to complete the very thorough permit application and is investing in our community, The Brook Mine permit is a necessary step in advancing the Advanced Carbon Research park, which will enable the company to use our highest quality coal to create advanced products such as carbon fiber and graphene. As the largest voice of business in Sheridan County, we encourage the DEQ to complete this process and issue Ramaco Carbon final approval of their permit.