

Kent Sherwood

I fully support the BrookMine project. It is this kind of forward thinking, innovation, and research that I feel are essential in solving tomorrow's problems. It is a great project and I feel can greatly benefit us all. What a great diversification of resources we have to help solve tomorrow's problems while fully benefiting our local community.