

bob nicholas

Hi: I am state representative serving Wyoming. This project is critical for Wyoming's economy, for our workers, and for our local communities. Our fiscal picture is bleak. It is essential we maximize our natural resources and protect our way of life. New applications for coal will hopefully revolutionize the market and literally improve our environment. It is my impression the Wyoming legislature overwhelming supports this project.

Sincerely,

Rep. Bob Nicholas