

Janice Galpin

Innovation & new ideas is what keeps an economy vibrant & growing. Ramaco have an excellent record as good stewards of the land while dramatically improving the communities in which they operate. The importance of creating new job opportunities is invaluable and Ramaco should be considered an asset to the Sheridan district.