

Gay Schaye

I stay in Sheridan for several months at a time and consider it a second home. The innovation, jobs, interest, and goodwill that Ramaco brings to the city and state are exactly what's needed today and for our future. They are navigating new ways to use an abundant resource in a thoughtful way. We need this!