

Ryan Franklin

I am in favor of this for many reasons. First the State of Wyoming is heavily dependent on our Minerals and their extraction. Yet coal has become a dirty word in the Climate Change debate. Here is a company that can make the State happy by continuing to mine and they are using the coal for a Clean reason. This is a win for all.