

WWC Engineering

I support the Brook Mine Permit Application based on the admirable work conducted by licensed professionals who prepared the application as well as the those licensed professionals and technical experts within all three DEQ districts that reviewed the application. This is a product over 7 years of diligent work that not only protects the environment, but will provide high quality jobs that keep our Wyoming families together.

Brady Lewis
WWC Engineering - President/CEO