

Bruce Lang

This is a high use area for hunting also for target practice. The land has water confinements on it which draws waterfowl as well as a variety of game animals. I am dead set against closing of this land for mining