

Fletcher Cameron

I object to the gravel expansion project. The effects it will have on the environment and local wildlife along with truck traffic will be devastating. The noise, dust and eyesore will also ruin the daily experience of dozens of residents and property owners in the valley who love and care to protect this area. This project will scar this valley permanently.