

Virginia Cameron

I object to this project because Bondurant is my childhood home and we have seen the the negative effect that the Evans gravel pit has had in the community and on the local environment when it was operating in the 1990s at a significantly smaller scale than what is being purposed in this project.