

Elizabeth Sidamon-Eristoff

This permit creates an unacceptable level of noise, rock dust, and congestion for adjacent residents. I was assured by the operator that there would be one permit and that after that the extremely unsightly area would be remediated, including a planting and even a possible pond. Relying on this assurance, I did not oppose the last permit. Another permit would violate this assurance.