

Chad McCutcheon

Let the people farm and make a living at home like we are supposed to be able to do in this "FREE" country. Money and politics should have no impact on this decision. I don't even see how you can legally deny them a permit since there have been no violations and they have done everything that the law requires them to do. Please do the right thing and issue this permit.