

Carol Auger

The devastation that has already been created by C&H is mind boggling. This was once a real treasure and brought in millions of dollars to our state in tourism. Ruining our environment is a common theme in all futuristic novels, movies, etc. Why we can't learn from this is hard to understand. There is zero reason to have allowed this foreign owned company to destroy our beautiful state.