

Christopher Selle

I think allowing any commercial activity that may effect, change or harm the water quality or the water sheds quality is a grave mistake. The buffalo river is looked at as one of the last pristine water ways in the United States. Please do the right thing for current and future generation and deny the farm permit.

Thank you,

Chris Selle