

Mark Keaton

I am in support of ADEQ approving C&H's Reg.5 permit. Research conducted by University of Arkansas scientists has not shown any adverse effects to water quality in the area where C&H hog farm is located. Additionally, C&H hog farm has been in business for more than five years with no environmental violations. Finally, sound science, and not emotion, should drive decisions concerning Arkansas' environmental standards.