

donald horton

This is regarding the C and H Hog farm section 5 permit denial. From everything I have read and heard regarding what C and H has done is far more than is required or necessary for the operation to proceed. It looks to be just another example of people trying to take advantage of a farmer and not truly understanding the just how much the ag industry values our environment.