

Terri Hargrove

Save Arkansas's National river. Animal waste on such a large scale is dangerous for the health of the local ecosystem. That river is a natural beauty that draws in tourism and is an asset to the community. There is proof that the water quality in areas near the hog farm has been tainted. We need to act NOW. You can move the hog farm, you can't move the river.