

Abraham Hawkinson

The operation of a hog farm in this area will have irrevocably damaging, far-reaching and unforeseeable consequences. I believe that the operation of this hog farm should not be allowed.

To put things another way, I think this hog farm is a bunch of hogwash. Hogwash which will be running down the river, killing fish, and damaging the fishing and recreation based tourism driven economy of the area which depends on this river.