

Carrie Crane

The Buffalo River is one of the most beautiful and magical places in the world, please help keep the environment and water as pristine as it has always been. This place is sacred! I have been coming here my entire life and plan to keep doing so and it would be an absolute tragedy to allow this place to become polluted and ruined by farm runoff. Protect our natural spaces, SPECIFICALLY the Buffalo National River... we aren't getting any more of them.