

Danny Kelley

It's been a family tradition with my wife, kids and myself that every year we float the Buffalo River. This past summer , however, we were saddened and disgusted to see the algae polluted river that no longer resembles the beautiful river that we always remembered. Please put a stop to these hog farms. No amount of money should be allowed to destroy our natural treasures.