

Shena Campbell

I have know this family my whole life. They work so hard for what they got and they have done everything you have asked them to do and more. They are good Christian people who do anything for anyone if you don't let them have the permit you will taken there livelihood the roofs over there family's head and the only thing the know best farming. So please let them receive the permit

Sent from my iPhone