

KEELIN BAGGS

I personally love to float and camp but in no way do I feel like this farm is harming our environment. I enjoy the outdoors but some of these water shed policies are getting beyond reason. Don't take the livelihood of this family away. Farming is a way of life and without farmers our country would shut down. Wild animals and people contribute more to the buffalo river water contamination than this hog farm ever will.