

Carole Lyle

I love being here, for the Nature...it horrifies me to see how abusive it is being addressed to "solve the problem" for a few ranches. The violence directed toward our intelligent & family-oriented Wolves - to mentally and physically torment them over & over again is so cruel & inhumane "solution" for the sake off greedy business, infuriates me & I will not financially support this. It turns me away from many WA products, actually. It's disturbing that WA Government is this backward & selfish, over the majority of US