

courtney keppelman

We must protect our apex predators. I do not support grazing cattle or sheep on public lands. We deserve greater transparency of the funds received by our policy makers from the cattleman's association.