

lisa cross

I do not reside in Washington but have been a tourist in the past. Part of the charm of your state is the wild and free nature of iconic American species like the wolf. Please protect them. Thank you.