

Sandra Wilson

Please protect the wolves their families that have chosen to make Washington State their home. As more more forested land is cut in the state wild animals birds are losing home foraging grounds. We must live with nature all species or become soulless spiritless as a human species. We must share the earth. It is not ours to do as we like. Thank you.