

Barbara Parker

I believe it is almost impossible for wolves to make their way to the Olympic national Park due to all the cities and highways blocking their way. I would like to see wolves slated to be killed moved to the deep forests of the Olympic Peninsula. By doing this, wolves will have the opportunity to learn to hunt for wildlife rather than domestic animals.