

Wolf Post-Recovery Plan Scoping

Please give us your comments!

The Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife is inviting the public to comment on the scope of a post-recovery plan for wolves in Washington. Scoping helps us identify reasonable actions, alternatives, and impacts to be discussed in the plan. Scoping improves decisions and encourages collaboration, cooperation, and early resolution of potential conflicts. It is intended to narrow the focus of the plan to the relevant issues. The public scoping comment period for this process is open from August 1, 2019 through November 1, 2019. Nov 15, 2019

Comments can also be provided electronically at wdfw.wa.gov/wolves-post-recovery-comments
 * Required fields. Please print clearly.

Comments on the scope of the post-recovery wolf conservation and management plan:

I WOULD LIKE TO SEE ALL THE WOLF RECOVERY PLANS SHUT DOWN. THERE IS NOT A NEED FOR WOLVES AND THIS IS A WASTE OF TAX PAYER MONEY

Sincerely
 William R Chapman

Privacy Notice: Please be aware that names and addresses of respondents may be released if requested under the Freedom of Information Act. Our practice is to make comments, including names and home addresses of respondents, available for public review during regular business hours. Individual respondents may request that we withhold their home address from the record, which we will honor to the extent allowable by law. There also may be circumstances in which we would withhold from the record a respondent's identity, as allowable by law. If you wish us to withhold your name and/or address, you must state this prominently at the beginning of your written comments. We will make all submissions from organizations or businesses, and from individuals identifying themselves as representatives or officials of organizations or businesses, available for public inspection in their entirety.
