

Michelle Kaptur

I think that before wolves are shot and packs removed ranchers should be required to practice sound management. Herds should have people present to protect them if necessary. Grazing permits should NOT be issued in wolf pack territories. Conflicts should be avoided rather than handled with lethal removals of wolves.

Our public lands should not be managed as private ranch land.

Thank you,
Michelle