

Tyler Weilep

The special interest of a small group shouldn't have such a negative impact on those that don't hold the same interest. At minimum, a management plan needs to be agreed upon at a county level. This would then remove the voice of the many unaffected yet manipulative people that are very ignorant to the REAL impact of the wolf's.